PICAYUNE TO PLAY STANISLAUS ELEVEN TONIGHT

THANKSGIVING FESTIVAL PRESENTED BY LOCAL CLUB TUESDAY EVENING

Sixty-Three People Sit at Festal Table and Enjoy State-Wide Program—Warren Jackson, Speaker, Outlines Agricultural and Industrial Progress of Mississippi.

Pursuant to Governor Hugh White's Proclamation, proclaiming this Thanksgiving Week, and asking that the churches, schools, civic clubs and all other groups observe thanksgiving since the State had been so abundantly blessed, Bay St. Louis' civic club, Bay St. Louis International Rotary entertained on Tuesday evening at Hotel Weston sixty-three persons at a banquet and with an accompanying program.

Warren Jackson, executive secretary of the former Mississippi Coast Club, that accomplished so much for this section, was the program speaker of the evening—assigned to Bay St. Louis by the Bureau of Speakers of the Mississippi Advertising Commission at Jackson.

Mr. Jackson's address was timely and informative. He reviewed the immediate progress of the State, told what the State had, excelling others; what it did and the things it was planning to do. He outlined briefly a long list of accomplishments that not only proved interesting as well as informative but proved a revelation. Well versed, he handled his subject in a manner that brought forth sustained applause at its conclusion. Mr. Jackson is no stranger here and received a personal ovation.

A feature of the evening was one that was entirely unexpected by the honoree, taking him off his feet, so to speak. Immediate Past President Joseph R. Scharff was cited and presented with a solid gold past president pin, Rotarian Arthur A. Scafield making the formal presentation in happy manner and well chosen words. Mr. Scharff could not conceal his surprise and at first showed some apprehension. Mr. Scafield assured him that this was no 'hold up'.

An enjoyable diversification were the two dance numbers by Miss Dorothy Tudury of Bay St. Louis, and a Gulf Park student. Her first number, in costume, was a Russian characteristic dance, her second a clever tap number. Mrs. Ainsie Saucier, pianist, accompanied the dances and as well the various song numbers of the evening. Dr. James A. Evans the club's official song leader.

The song numbers included America, The More We Get Together, When It's Spring in the Rockies, Let Me Call You Sweetheart, I'm Forever Singing Rotary, (words by Dr. Evans; and Goodnight, Ladies. President Norton Haas presided. He was assisted by C. J. Gordon and Rene de Montluzin, Jr., as secretaries at his elbow.

The long table was set in T shape and decorated with Autumn flowers, the color combination of white and orange contrasting in pleasing effect. Pass Christian Rotary Club was largely represented, ladies and gentlemen numbering from fifteen to twenty, a neighborly gesture and a renewal of that splendid spirit existing between the two cities.

Hotel Weston served a turkey menu and the cuisine and service was cause for compliments.

The committee in charge of the entire affair worked to that full point of success that made the affair one of so much pleasure.

Included in the number present were noted

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Haas, Mr. Warren Jackson, Mr. C. J. Gordon, Mr. Rene de Montluzin, Miss Vandeleigh Touquet, Dr. and Mrs. James A. Evans, Dr. L. H. Prince, Mr. and Mrs. John Bozeman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Scharff, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Gray, Mr. Arthur A. Scafield, Mr. and Mrs. John Scafield, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Mauffray, Mr. York Feitel, Mrs. Ella B. Maybin, Mr. Edw. I. Jones, Mr. John McDonald, Miss Louise Carrere, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. C. Woodward, Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Shipp, Mrs. Minna Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Capt. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lang, Miss Mae McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers, Mr. Aubert, Mr. and Mrs. Spence, Mr. Fred Sutter, Mrs. Peggy Gause, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Moreau, Mrs. A. Saucier, Mrs. Theo Tudury.

A Christmas celebration and banquet is being planned by the Rotary Club for holiday week.

BUSRIDE ACCIDENT IN COUNTY

Miss Helen Ladner, 17, Killed in Turn Over Bus—Twelve at Hospital

Miss Helen Ladner, 17 years old, died early Sunday of injuries received when the bus taking a group of Pearl River college students to the football game at Perkinston Saturday overturned.

She is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Ladner, and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Carrie Ladner of New Orleans, Mrs. Edna Ladner of Pass Christian, Joseph, Herman, Gopher, Leroy, Ierne and Burlin Ladner, all residents of Dedeaux Community, on the Hancock-Harrison counties line. Last rites for the unfortunate young lady were conducted by Rev. Father Denis, pastor of the Catholic church, at Kih, Hancock county, 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, and members of the Freshman class of Pearl River College, at Poplarville, served as pall bearers.

Miss Ladner was one of the score that were hurt when the bus turned over, others in a critical condition, 12 remain at a local hospital of that section.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Ladner are well known over Hancock county, numbering with our best and substantial citizens and the great loss that has come to them carries sorrow over a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Ladner have the sympathy of many in their hour of tragedy and bereavement.

AUTO AND TRUCK IN COLLISION

Corner Old Spanish Trail And Second St.—Injured Taken to Nearby Hospital

An automobile returning from New Orleans and traveling eastward at the intersection of the Old Spanish Trail and Second street (schoolhouse) and a truck collided with the result several occupants of the car were painfully injured and the truck was demolished. The victims of the crash were taken over to the King's Daughters Hospital, nearby, where injuries were dressed and patients taken care of.

Mrs. R. E. Lee, owner of the car, who escaped uninjured, was driving back to her home at West Bay, Florida. In her car were Mrs. Hazel Ray and two children, Charles and Walter Lee Ray, Jr., and Mrs. Mollie Buchanan, mother of Mrs. Ray. The truck was occupied by Sam Benigno, owner, Alphonse Fayard and Mr. Ed. T. Kellar. He was driving along the Spanish Trail and was at the time turning in Second street, in front of Central School.

Benigno was cut in two places, on the face and on hand, requiring sutures. No other occupants in the truck was injured even though it was demolished.

Mrs. Ray suffered sprained or fractured collar bone. Mrs. Buchanan sustained broken ribs.

DAVES BANK SUIT

The RFC won a decision against stockholders of a defunct Chicago Bank which was loaned $90,000,000. The Court held the stockholders liable for $12,500,000 by virtue of an Illinois statute making stockholders liable for an amount equal to the stock they held. The case will probably go to a higher court.

ACTIVITIES OF N. O. DIVISION OF S. S. C. PARENTS' ASSN.

Two Hundred People Attend Card Party Benefit—Holiday Event Announced.

The annual autumn card party sponsored by the New Orleans Division, St. Stanislaus Parents' Association, was held on November 18th in the Monteleone Hotel.

The party was an overwhelming success, the attendance numbering nearly 200 persons. The usual attractive prizes were in evidence on the lotto tables while something unique in the way of bridge prizes were introduced. Beautiful hand-painted, pastel-colored lap-boards with artistic stencil work was the reward for being the best bridge player at each table. This is the first time prizes of this description were ever offered at a bridge game. Everyone marvelled at these prizes, and competition was at its height, with participants striving to win.

The entrance prize of $2.00 was won by Mrs. Cornelius Polmon, as was the prettily decorated cake so kindly made and donated by Mrs. Clay Thomas. Wednesday must have been Mrs. Polmon's lucky day, as in all the years of her assistance to the Mothers' Club, nothing was ever won by her, and all happy to see her win doubly this time.

The beautiful electric table lamp which was raffled at the party was won by Mrs. McDermid. The success of the party was made possible by the following ladies: Mesdames, Redmann, Brysson, Moustier, Slavich, Thomas, Hardie, Sankassan, Weil, Kiefer, Skelley, Aicklen, Fitzpatrick, Smith, Williams, Polmon and Ortol.

Xmas Holiday Card Party. Now that the card party is over, all interest is centered on the dance sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Parents' Association, (New Orleans Division) to be given at the beautiful Crystal Room during the Christmas holidays.

We plan to make this one of the most successful affairs ever attempted by the Parents' Association; and if present indications are not deceiving, there will be no disappointments.

The floor show is to be different from that of last year and the number of acts have been augmented. The best talent available in the City of New Orleans has been engaged, and the program will be superior to any performance of the year. The committee in charge has also secured the services of Al Strieman's orchestra, and this fact insures those who attend a most enjoyable evening of dancing.

It is asked everyone who considers himself a friend of St. Stanislaus College to come forward and help make this affair a greater success than anticipated. The slogan is: "We have it, now let's get it paid for."

Recreation Work Shop, Federal Project, to Be Moved to Woodmen Hall

The recreational work shop which is located at Second and St. George streets, will be moved to the W. O. W. Hall on Second street. Special classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

On Tuesdays group singing classes will be held from 2 p. m. to 3 p. m., for the adults, and from 3:30 p. m. until 4:30 p. m. there will be a class for children.

On Thursday, craft work will be taught, the adults coming at the same hours 2 p. m. to 3 p. m., and the children 3:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. Any old toys, small paint brushes, broken dolls, doll dresses, etc., that can be contributed to the craft shop will be greatly appreciated. They will be repaired by the craft workers and put on the Scout Christmas tree. Mr. Joseph Gilbert who will be in charge will receive them at the W. O. W. Hall. Mr. Gilbert urges everyone who can find a spare hour in the afternoon to come. It is open to the public.

There will also be community singing and singing games for everyone.

RECOVERY PARTIAL

The recovery movement promises to continue for months to come but experts point out that it is mainly a consumer-goods recovery. Still operating below level and credited with accounting for most of our unemployment are three units of the business machine, namely, construction, the making of capital goods, and export trade.

COLLEGE TEAM TO CLASH

With Picayune Tonight At Local Stadium—Last Game of Regular Season.

St. Stanislaus closes its 1936 football season tonight (Friday) against the powerful Picayune High School Maroons under the stadium lights of the S. S. C. This should be the signal for the assembly of one of the largest crowds yet to assemble to see the two popular teams in their fight for supremacy.

Picayune is undefeated and untied this year, boasting one of the strongest teams in the state. The Rock-A-Chaws have come along nicely, winning their last five games after poor early-season form. Their latest effort, an 8-0 conquest of Pascagoula, was the season's highlight.

Three men who have been outstanding on the Stanislaus eleven end their high school careers with the playing of this game. They are V. J. Gianelloni, 180-pound tackle; Louis Rogers, halfback, and Frank Fagan, a fine blocking back.

St. Stanislaus is expected to give Picayune's Miller brothers and the powerful Maroon line a real tussle. Picayune uses the L. S. U. offensive system while the Rock-A-Chaws use the Tulane offense.

Picayune will send a liberal number of fans and it is expected Bay St. Louis will show its interest and loyalty to the home eleven in turning out in great numbers to cheer S. S. C. and Bay St. Louis on to victory. The local team has many friends and tonight will be the time and opportunity to show appreciation and good will. It will be the last game of the regular season. We are very proud of St. Stanislaus and victory tonight will be a crowning achievement.

Original Entertainment Attracts Crowds Both Nights—Unique and Clever Presentation Goes Over in Big Way—Financial Success.

FLO FIELD TO HEAD REVIEW

Of The Month Club to Present Unusual Program Dec. 8, at Seagull.

The next meeting of the Review of the Month Club will take place at the Seagull, Tuesday, December 8th, at 8:00 P. M. Flo Field, well known in New Orleans and along the Gulf Coast, will give a most interesting program consisting of "The Cajun" and "Madame Toussaint's Wedding Day." In order to defray expenses the price of admission will be 25c.

Recent additions to the library shelves are: "Oregon Trail" by Francis Parkman, (that glorious forerunner of all Western novels); "And Gladly Teach" (an autobiography written by Bliss Perry who was a teacher at Williams, Princeton, and Harvard Colleges. His terms of service at these colleges were occasionally broken by two years of graduate study in Germany, one year of lecturing in various universities of France, and ten years devoted to editing the Atlantic Monthly); "South Moon Under" by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings; "Albert and the Belgians" by Charles D'Ydewalle (being a sheaf of memories written by a journalist of ten admitted into King Albert's intimate circle); and "The Life of the Spider," by J. H. Fabre.

George Ferchaud gave seven children's books and one adult book. The Beach Drug Store sent another generous supply of magazines. These magazines are distributed in nearly every section of the county and are a big aid in the stimulation of reading.

"Standard Catalog for Public Libraries" published by H. W. Wilson Company, has been purchased for the use of the librarian. This catalog includes about 11,700 titles carefully selected with the aid of librarians and specialists. The titles are arranged in classes according to the Dewey Decimal Classification and are fully annotated with the indication of the sources of all quoted notes. Its main purpose will be its use as a purchasing list, and it shows the best titles for small and medium sized public libraries to buy in the fields covered, and indicates by starred titles the books recommended for first purchase. To aid in this use full information is given about publishers, prices and editions.

$100.00 has been given the library by the county. This money is to buy only books for children. These books will be circulated throughout the county—at our branch libraries and at the county schools. The library will be closed all day Thanksgiving. The Treasure Hunt which is being held this week has kept the library buzzing with children searching through books. The answers to this contest have to be turned into Miss Crawford sometime before 5:00 Tuesday afternoon.

Harrison Co. Teachers Adopt Resolutions Asking For More Funds

Information from Biloxi says that the Harrison county Teachers' Association executive committee has adopted resolutions asking the Mississippi state legislative body to appropriate $1,500,000 for school purposes to be used under the equalizing plans for the state schools so that they might continue their term of eight months. The committee stated that rural schools of the county are in need of finances and that teachers are underpaid.

WILD DEER ATTACKS 90 YEAR OLD WOMAN.

Caroline Fairley, 90-year-old negro, residing in Harrison county, was run down and injured by a wild deer while crossing a field. The animal bucked and cut the woman with its horns and hoofs. Her injuries, however, are reported not serious.

Two-night and one day performance of the Burlesque Circus, originated, planned, executed and presented by Bay St. Louis ingenuity, at St. Joseph Gym, Saturday and Sunday evenings, under auspices of the Mothers' Club, proved an unqualified success.

Although representing a multitude of detail the building of animal forms, that were so true to original portrayal, proved not only a novelty but highly entertaining.

There is something alluring about a circus. How old an institution is the sawdust ring, with its performers and trained animals, funny clowns and whatnots, and this one, even though burlesque in the truest sense of the word, was no exception. There was that odor of sawdust that no one dislikes, the seller of peanuts, the funny policeman and last but by no means least, the ringmaster, with his whip, high boots, and high hat, who is ever the personification of elegance and impresses one with the fact that without him there would be no performance. His greatness and in speech his long drawn vowels, and ever effervescent flowing of adjectives and that would seemingly bankrupt the dictionary, are all elements that conspire to make the circus for the very things that we look forward to and would be disappointed if they were to fail.

Martin Blanchard as ringmaster was all that could be desired. He was typical and contributed that atmosphere to the ring so essential for the success of a circus. The clowns were funnier than ever. And amused both children and adult. This is a difficult role. Try it. It takes a master to perform clown acts.

There were many features that were original. The pony that did all but talk, the performing elephant, the ferocious gorilla, the slow moving turtle, then the smaller 'animals' in tricks and stunts—cats, rabbits, ducks, etc., all personified by children in costume that affected the most natural-like appearance. These characters were conceived, built and costumes designed by that master mind and worker, Mr. C. A. Gordon of Bay St. Louis, whose artistic versatility seems to know no limit. He has proven from time to time in our community that he is a man capable of accomplishing many things—all a labor of love and "for sweet charity sake." Mr. and Mrs. Gordon and their sons, C. J. and Jerry have ever and liberally contributed to the good of the community in divers ways.

Clowns were represented by C. J. Gordon, Jerry Gordon, Joe Gilbert, Ferdinand Lizana and L. S. Elliott. Side shows were part of the circus. None is complete without them. The Streets of Paris presented 'girls' of the Naughty French Capital, in different dances.

"Mohammed," of the Orient, the wizard of magic, represented by Mr. Bernard Shields, was one of the several better attractions. The various card tricks and other illusions were awe-inspiring and one left with the clinging thought, "How is it done?" But the mystery of it all is the ever intriguing element present and arouses one's senses of curiosity.

Another sideshow attraction, educational, was in charge of Mrs. L. S. Elliott, who displayed a rare collection of miniature objects collected by herself and daughters over a period of years, and there seemingly was something from every corner of the world.

The sandwich, coffee and beer booth was in charge of Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, Mrs. Claud Monti, Mrs. Demoran, Mrs. Pepperdene and Mrs. E. C. Carrere, and was kept busy during a rushing business.

Mr. Henry Larose was keeper of the famous Country Store. A "country store" at a benefit without Mr. Larose as chief exploiter, would be something akin to the play of Hamlet by the melancholy Dane absent. Such services are indispensable and all contributed to make the circus the success that it proved.

Children and grown-ups enjoyed it as well and we feel rather grateful that the workers interested made such entertainment possible. Something new and different. An effort that was well received and worthwhile.

Large catches of speckled trout are being reported daily by the many local fishermen of this immediate territory. One catch of nice size green trout was also reported Sunday.

District Ranger and Others Address Civic Club at Biloxi City.

Max T. Brown, district ranger for the Desoto district, department of agriculture, was speaker of the day before the Biloxi Rotary Club, issuing an invitation to Biloxians to attend the dedication of the W. W. Ashe Tree Nursery at Brooklyn. He gave interesting facts regarding the nursery on 100 acres with 30,000,000 pine seedlings planted for the replenishing of the South Mississippi forests. They are making a game refuge, recreational facilities and picnic grounds in the north Harrison county and expect to have merchantable pines in 15 or 20 years. George Ditto also gave valuable information regarding the operation of the Biloxi city schools, hoping for the 50-50 division of the equalizing and per capita tax appropriations by the state legislative body in arranging for the $1,000,000 school fund.

Gilician Nicaise, Oswald and Lavander Ladrer, all residents of the Jordan river section of Hancock county, were bound over to the federal grand jury at Biloxi Saturday under $750 bonds, following a hearing before United States Commissioner J. W. Savage on a charge of distillery and a quantity of liquor on which no federal tax had been paid.

Tourists Reported To Swarm Florida This Winter Season

A newspaper report from St. Petersburg says that travel experts at that place have given it out that 2,500,000 tourists will visit Florida during the winter season and leave more than a half billion dollars. St. Petersburg will easily get 100,000 visitors.

Biloxi Police Have Orders to Shoot All Dogs at Sight to Kill

Biloxi police have orders to "shoot to kill" all stray dogs without muzzles in the future, to prevent the spread of rabies. Similar action has been taken in Gulfport and County Health Officer D. J. Williams is giving treatment to 25 persons for dog bites.

SOMETHING ABOUT TUNG NUTS.

Crushing of tung nuts at the Crosby-Rowlands mill at Poplarville will start about January 1st. A bountiful crop has been grown and demand continues unabated for seedlings. Thousands of acres in new orchards will be planted during the next few years. It may interest you to know that this country consumed 125,000,000 pounds of tung oil last year but only one per cent was produced in this country. The remainder came from China and other Far Eastern countries.—Jackson News.

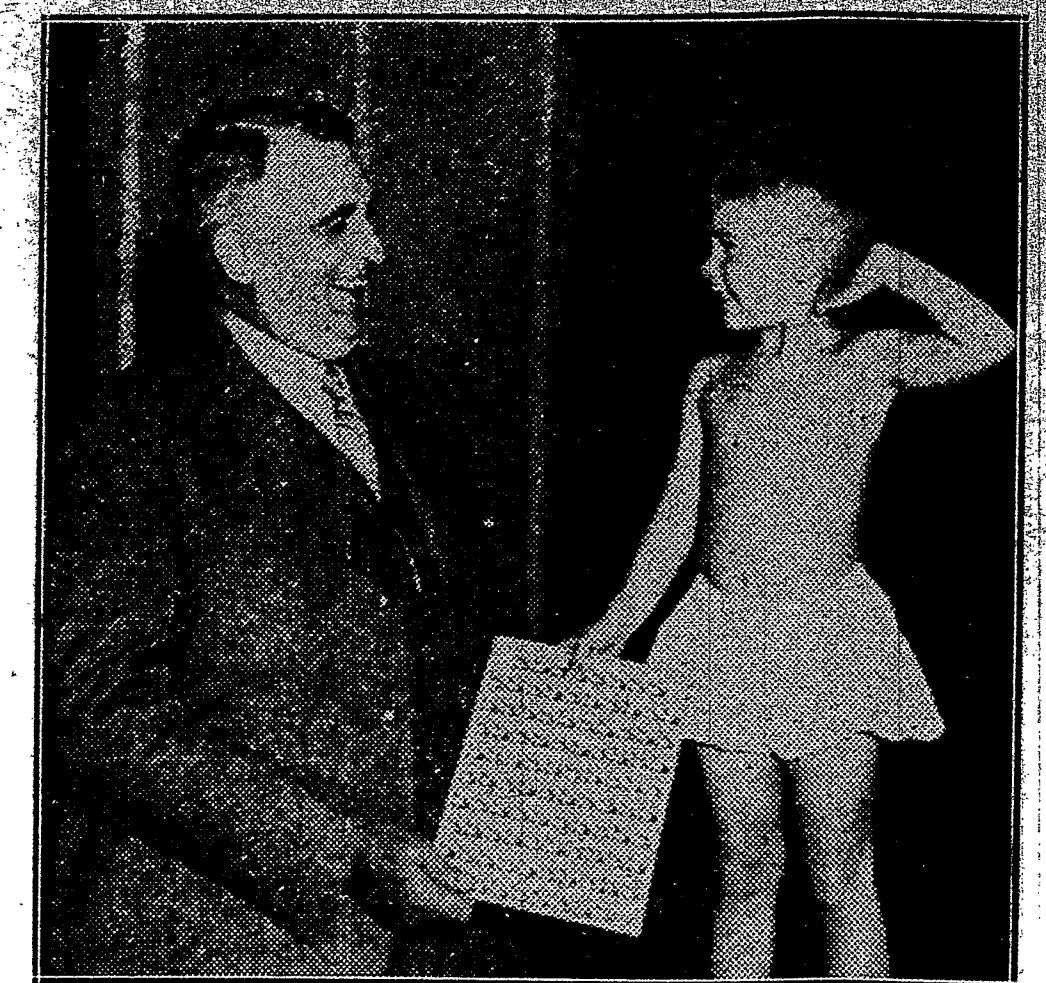

CONSOLING

Don't pay much attention to the fellow who howls about the high rate of taxation on property. The fact of the matter is that there has been a decline of $302,000,000 in Mississippi's assessment roll during the past two years, of which about $117,000,000 was due to homestead exemptions. Your realty tax at the present eight-mill rate is comparatively trivial. The state has lost about $3,000,000 in revenue from this source since 1930.—Jackson News.

Try CARDUI For Functional Monthly Pains

Women from the teen age to the change of life have found Cardui genuinely helpful for the relief of functional monthly pains due to lack of the right strength from the food they eat. Mrs. Carl Maren of New York City writes: "I used Cardui when a girl for cramps and found it very helpful. I have recently taken Cardui during the change of life. The very nervous, hot head and back pains and was in a generally run-down condition. Cardui has helped me greatly. Thousands of women suffer Cardui benefits them. Governor Opens Christmas Seal Campaign

Four-year-old Bill Weathersby leaves the Preventorium long enough to deliver the first Christmas Seal of 1936 to Governor Hugh L. White of Mississippi. He seems to have convinced Mr. White that everybody ought to buy Christmas Seals because they help to protect fine men like Bill and the Governor from tuberculosis.

COMMUNITY SANITATION REGISTERS RAPID STRIDES OVER STATE

Work In Effect in 79 Counties, Including Hancock, Over Mississippi

The State Board of Health in co-operation with the Works Progress Administration has just completed one year's work on the Community Sanitation Project. During this time 23,974 sanitary pit toilets have been constructed at rural schools and at homes in rural and urban areas where sewers are not available. This project under W. P. A. superceded similar projects carried on by the State Board of Health under the C. W. A. and E. R. A. programs and is in effect in 79 counties in the State. To date under the three Federal programs there have been constructed 51,169 such improvements. That this work will be of lasting benefit is indicated by the fact that 98 per cent of these toilets are constructed of concrete.

The primary objective of the Community Sanitation Program is to remove a serious menace to health of both rural and unsewered urban areas by eliminating unsanitary facilities now in general use. As these unsanitary facilities are primarily responsible for the spread of filth-borne diseases such as typhoid fever, dysentery, hookworm disease, and the summer intestinal infection of infants outside the sanitarized urban areas, their elimination will constitute a major factor in the prevention and successful control of these diseases. The effect of this extensive work during the past three years is already seen in the reduction in cases of these diseases occurring in the State. This work is also being extended to dairy farms in the State, thus constituting a safety factor in the production of Mississippi's milk supply.

While the construction of sanitary toilets is not spectacular, it is doubtful if any project will have as permanent and far-reaching value to so many people in the State as this work, as the elimination of an unsanitary condition does not only effect the people responsible for the creation of that condition but the entire community. This project is known as the W. P. A. Community Sanitation Project and it literally is a community project as it provides additional protection to all the people of the State against the spread of filth-borne diseases.

THINGS I'M THANKFUL FOR.

FOR my baby, bless her heart,
Smiling up with infant art,
For her mother crooning there,
Seated in her rocking-chair.

For our blessed little boy,
Playing with his pretty toy,
For the fire upon the hearth,
For each friend of winsome worth.

Lord, I thank thee for these gifts,
For each little thing that lifts
Life above the common-place
Till it glows with tender grace.

Lord, I crave no grand estate,
Grudge no brine nor potentate,
Pine for neither wealth nor fame,
Seek no laurels for my name.

Let me walk in humble ways,
Let me thrill my simple lays,
Guide me gently to the end,
Be my Father, Comrade, Friend.

For my fireside, for my own,
Lord, I'd leave a crown and throne,
Though such treasures some abhor,
Things like these, I'm thankful for.

Blue Mountain, Miss.

"MY MAN GODFREY" WOULD TURN SPHINX INTO LAUGHING HYENA

(By the Keeper of the Godfrey Zoo)

Human animals are funny things. This gem of wisdom is set down only after careful study of the genus homo sapiens during the filming of Universal's "My Man Godfrey," the offering that stars William Powell and Carole Lombard at the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday.

The discovery was made first by Eric Match, who did a novel about two three-legged Fuzzy Wuzzies. Then Morris Ryskind, who wrote "Animals Crackers," added to the screen play his knowledge of the Broadway and Fifth Avenue jungles. At that point the keeper of the Godfrey zoo was called in to make observations and report what he saw. This is his report. Gregory La Cava, the director, called out, "Camera!" and the fur began to fly, wilder and funnier by the minute. "My man Godfrey" would turn the Sphinx into a laughing hyena.

Carole Lombard has the role of Irene, a Fifth Avenue debutante. Some people think Irene is dumb, she plays possum and turns out to be crazy like a fox. The rest of her household should be called a menagerie, rather than a menage. The father, Mr. Bullock, thinks he is the Wolf of Wall Street, but he finds he is just another shorn sheep. The mother wants to be a bird of paradise, but she proves to be just an old goose with gilded wings. In her idle moments, she is amused by a gigolo, who leaps about the room like a cavorting gorilla on a pogo stick. Irene's sister is a snake in the grass. The sister is portrayed by Gail Patrick, who first came to the movies as a Panther Woman. In the early scenes they have a nanny goat and her kid running around a swanky hotel ball room. William Powell, as the butler, is a bearcat for dodging Irene's advances. Although he is cagey, she gets him trapped and brings him back alive.

Admiral Standley to be retired at his own request on January 1.

President Roosevelt retains his perfect health after years of strain.

FREE TREES GIVEN

Hancock County May Receive Free Seedlings from Forestry Commission

Hancock county citizens may receive the benefits of free planting of forest tree seedlings on a limited scale, according to State Forester Fred E. Merrill. He says that this service is available to all counties cooperating with the State Forestry Commission in organized fire control. The labor will be furnished by N. Y. A. workers on the forestry projects in these eighteen counties, seven of which are also served by the three C. C. C. forest camps operated by the Commission.

The State Forester says: "All tree planting services will be furnished on an education and demonstration basis only—first to educate workers in proper planting practices; second to demonstrate to private owners the feasibility of such work."

"N. Y. A. workers will plant only about one acre for each owner and unless circumstances alter each of these workers will plant not over 3,000 trees, or about three acres. Thus the 150 N. Y. A. workers, if each planted the maximum of 3 acres, would establish 450 demonstrations of forest planting in the eighteen counties."

"The Commission's C. C. C. camps may plant as many as five acres of trees for an individual and it is planned that each camp will plant a maximum of 50 acres per county, or a total of 350 acres in the seven counties."

"Owners desiring forest tree planting work by N. Y. A. workers in Hancock county should contact County Ranger J. S. Shaw, Route 2, Perkinsville, CCC Camp Superintendents should be seen about tree planting work by their camps."

In every case the owner will have to provide the tree seedlings. Slash, loblolly, longleaf and shortleaf pines and black locust can be ordered from the State Forester at Jackson for $1.50 per thousand, plus express charges. A thousand trees will plant one acre. Dogwood seedlings will be delivered to the purchasers at $10.50 per thousand.

We're putting in coal too, neighbor!

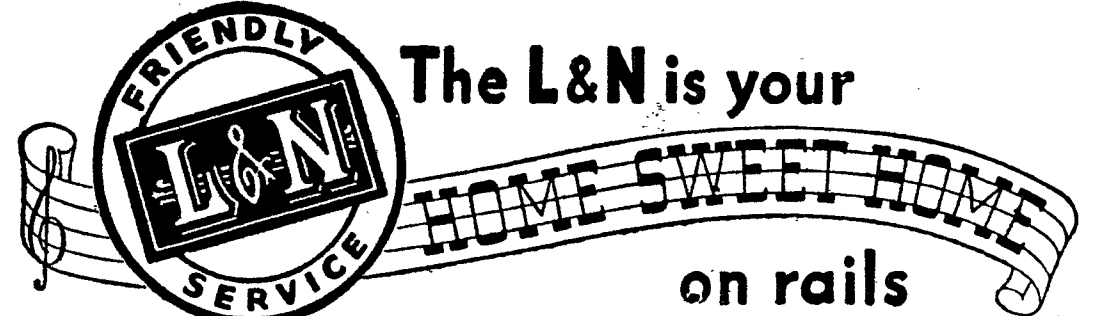

Yes, sir! Winter's coming and we're getting ready for it just as you are. Putting in coal. Keeping fires going. Doing all the things that keep a homeward and friendly.

You see, we maintain a home—your "Home Sweet Home" on rails. We buy coal—thousands of tons—we build fires... shovel snow... and remove sleet and ice... so that your "home on rails" will be pleasant, inviting, safe, no matter what the weather.

And though sometimes you may be inclined to think of us as nothing more than a safe, comfortable means of transportation... we are actually a neighbor of yours—a very human sort of neighbor with a hankering to talk with you across the fence about the homely things that concern us both. That's the way with neighbors, isn't it?

"HATE LITERATURE"

An inquiry into religious and racial propaganda during the recent campaign is to be urged by Representative Sam Dickstein, of New York, who charges that an "organized group of men with money" supplied funds for a "hate campaign." An exhibit of more than a thousand pieces of "bigotry and hate literature" has been made public in New York by Richard Rollins, investigator for the Dickstein committee in its 1934 inquiry.

SECTION AND STATE HAVE MUCH TO BE THANKFUL FOR THIS YEAR OF 1936We Have Been Free of the Many Disturbing Elements Visiting Other Sections—Health and Peace Outstanding Factor—General Upturn of Conditions.

Commenting on Thanksgiving, this particular section, Hancock county and the Gulf Coast generally have much to be thankful for. The indictment frequently heard that one is not appreciative is not well founded. We only too frequently lack the sense of realization.

Too many measure their happiness by the dollar and fall short. Possession of this world's good is a poor yardstick to go by. It is a medium of selfishness. Possession of the dollar and lacking the main essentials of good health and at peace with our neighbors and friends makes a man impoverished. We are enriched by the realization of possession of the things we fail to see in the mad pursuit for mercenary gain. Men live their entire lives for self and money, caring little for naught else.

The past year in Bay St. Louis is one we may well be thankful for. We have enjoyed a year of marvelous health, no epidemics, no run of "prevalent illness." Our summer season, which brings many happy people, seeking health and recreation, has broken the record of recent years. We have found less idleness.

In other words, there has been more to employ our people than the immediate preceding years. There is more employment today than ever. Labor has found occupation in factories and varied industries and enterprises that did not formerly exist.

Our schools have exceeded all enrollment. We find a greater percentage of work accomplished. Of public enterprise and local improvements we find by actual listing augmented more during the present year than possibly the past period of from three to five years. Really values have enhanced. We find a greater spirit of tolerance. More unification of our people in purpose and pursuit. More fraternalism and the horizon of business is by far brighter.

While the country at large has had droughts of long duration, dust storms that carried the soil away, flood and other devastations, railroad and marine and dock strikes that disturb the equilibrium of the basic principles of capital and labor, we of this section have been spared.

This is a season of abundance. Mississippi is holding fast to the basic principles. "She is combining character with her commerce, and integrity with civic enterprise. Discord, factional, and the greed of specialized groups have been submerged beneath a wave of public patriotism that has swept the State from border to border."

Our State, too, has fared well. Governor White is giving a businesslike and constructive administration. His program to balance agriculture with industry has not only found ready favor, but put into actual practice, backed by necessary legislation, has gone into effect. We find already twenty-three new industries either in operation or in course of construction since he first announced his purpose. One of these is going up at nearby Poyune, right over the Hancock county line, another at Gulfport where a garment factory is to supplant an idle plant that was never put into active operation.

It means much to this section and the South generally to have a Democratic administration. Our peerless Governor Harrison, our own hardworking Congressman Colmer have been re-elected in order they may continue their fine and constructive service. They have accomplished much for the Mississippi Gulf Coast in particular, South Mississippi and the State in general.

Other competent public servants have been returned to office and as a whole the fabric and scheme of things that make for the successful, for the betterment and for a happier people have been restored.

We are thankful for the creation of the Mississippi Advertising Commission with an appropriation of $100,000.00 with which to work. We are thankful to a loyal and patriotic press that donated to the State of Mississippi $125,000 of advertising space annually for the next four years. We are thankful to the patriotic men and women of Mississippi who are banded in unity of purpose, seeking for the moral advancement of the people and their state.

Thanks to an all-generous Providence, we are showered lavishly with gifts. This country has remained at peace with the world, we are at peace with our own and, indeed, we have much to be thankful for. Let the All-Wise One endow us with that spirit of understanding and that sense of realization hereinabove referred to in order we may be at all times thankful-conscious, not only for one day during the year but for every day in the twelve-month cycle.

Industrial Chairman

of Hattiesburg, who has been named by Governor Hugh White as chairman of the new industrial commission set up by the Mississippi Legislature in extraordinary session in September. Mr. Hoffman has been for some years assistant to the vice-president of the Mississippi Central Railroad. He is past president of the Hattiesburg Chamber of Commerce, governor-elect of the Mississippi-Louisiana Kiwanis District, and has played a conspicuous part in the industrial development of his home city. After a flying trip to Jackson to establish headquarters, Mr. Hoffman left for Chicago, where he is in the midst of several days of meetings and conferences. He will return to Jackson on November 17th.

William Ruhr Wins Election Contest By Supreme Court Decision

By a recent decision of the Supreme Court William (Bill) Ruhr, of Waveland, was elected to the office of alderman from the First Ward and, in pursuance to the decision has already taken over his seat. Allen Carver had been counted as elected by one vote majority over his opponent, but since there was one vote that was contested it was necessary to go through the courts.

The contention was the question of the legality of residence of one who had voted for Ruhr. The court declared the voter in question had a right to claim Waveland his place of domicile and hence was a legal, qualified voter and his ballot counted.

This changed the majority of one vote over to Ruhr and he automatically became the legally elected candidate to the office of alderman from Ward one.

Carnival Barker Is Freak Himself; Heart on Right

New Orleans—Physicians say Kenneth Rowley, 17, itinerant carnival barker who says he's from Buffalo, N. Y., is "one medical case in 100,000." His heart is on the right side of his chest.

But Rowley bemoaned, in a parish prison cell, that his heart is no good as a sideshow attraction because it can't be seen by the naked eye.

"I've never been able to do a thing with it in a half dozen carnivals and fairs," he said. "All I can do is bark—stand outside the tent and build up other acts. Sometimes it gets discouraging. Me with a guaranteed heart on the wrong side spelling for phony wild men."

Personal and GeneralOUR "MARCHIE" IS EXTREMELY POPULAR AND "MAKING GOOD"

From the Creighton University, Omaha, (Neb.) News Bulletin we find the following interesting social item, concerning one of the most likable fellows who calls Bay St. Louis his home and whose parents and their family reside. It is none other than our own "Marchie."

The weekly bulletin says: Handsome, young "Marchie" Schwartz, Creighton's athletic director and head football coach, former all-American at Notre Dame, recently was named by a society editor as one of Omaha's "most eligible bachelors." Now he has another title, voted him by officials of the Chamber of Commerce. It is "Omaha's best after-dinner speaker." Luncheon clubs, however, have never heard his between-halves lecture in the dressing room.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS RECEIVED IN THIS CITY.

Handsome engraved announcements were received in this city during the week, wherein Mr. and Mrs. Emile Joseph Debuc announce the marriage of their young daughter, Myrl to Mr. Masillon Miller Heuser, of Virginia, which happy event took place at Monroe, La., where the bride was temporarily residing, on Saturday last, November 21, 1936. Mr. and Mrs. Heuser will be "at home" at 245 Solar street, Bristol, Va.

The bride is well known in Bay St. Louis, a niece of Mrs. R. de Montuzin, and having resided here for a number of years with her parents. She is socially prominent in two States, Mississippi and Louisiana, and her lovely and charming presence in Bristol will prove quite an acquisition to the social circles of that section of the old aristocracy of Virginia. Mr. Heuser is a college man and an attorney by profession.

PRESENTATION FOR MUSIC-LOVERS AT N. O. THIS WEEK-END.

Many from Bay St. Louis will attend the spectacular and musical production, "The Great Waltz," at New Orleans this week at the Municipal Auditorium, and well worthy will the episode story of Franz Schubert, senior and junior, be worthy of attending as presented. Of course, the Great Waltz is the Beautiful Danube composition.

Parties from Bay St. Louis who saw the production at Center Theater, Radio City, New York, last year, say nothing like it has ever been presented on any stage, and that the music and artistry of it all will forever linger in fondest recollection.

LAST WEEK-END HAD MUCH INTEREST FOR THE FUN-LOVING.

Saturday and Sunday evenings provided unusual amusement for the fun-loving in Bay St. Louis with the presentation of a Burlesque Circus of which nothing more original and successfully given could have been conceived in the minds of the workers who evolved and created the circus.

It was noticed there was quite a social side to the show. Audiences both of younger and older people attended and the entertainment served not only as a source of a "meeting ground" but one that produced much merriment.

We are certainly indebted to the creative brain and willing hands who made the burlesque circus possible. There was a general and concerted action, a rally to the Mothers' Club and to the good sisters of St. Joseph who are striving so valiantly to clear the debt on a building they have given Bay St. Louis that would do justice to any metropolitan center.

WHAT ADVERTISING DOES.

When someone starts advertising, Someone start buying, When someone starts buying, Someone starts selling, When someone starts selling, Someone starts making, When someone starts making, Someone starts working, When someone starts working, Someone starts earning, When someone starts earning, Someone starts buying. An endless chain, so to speak, and the merchant who doesn't advertise and advertise regularly is doing nothing if he isn't breaking links in this endless chain.
